Har Ghar Tiranga Rally

Patriotism is a key to respect and love one's nation. India completed 75 years of independence. On this occasion, the Govt. of India instructed all states to celebrate Har Ghar Tiranga campaign so that citizens of India can realize the martyrs and their sacrifice for their nation. It will also create love for nation among citizens of the nation. Noting this fact, NSS, NCC and Swayamsiddha Cells organized Har Ghar Tiranga Rally in Sambhajinagar, Nipani.

Inclusion of other college students' in TCS-BPS employability skill programme

- Objectives: 1. To include eligible students from other college to training programme
2. To provide platform to other college students for employability

Every year placement cell of our college organizes employability skill development programme in association with Tata consultancy services (TCS), Mumbai. The trainer from TCS trains the students for 100 hours on online mode followed by campus drive.

We inform colleges in the vicinity about the commencement of TCS-BPS employability skill programme. Students contact and register with placement cell of the college. The list is sent to HR manager of affirmative action, corporate social responsibility, TCS. The training is conducted by certified trainer. After completion of programme the campus drives are conducted by TCS for trained students. They prefer girls and SC, ST and EBC students. This indeed is a noble service rendered to the wider society.

The following table shows the ratio of outside students trained and recruited by the institutions

Awareness camps for the farmers

Objectives

1. To aware farmers about soil and water testing
2. To inform farmers about use of pesticides

Farmers in rural areas are illiterate and less educated about different experiments to be adopted in agriculture. They do not know the importance of soil and water testing. Lack of soil and water testing reduces agricultural production and productivity. Consequently, farmers' income does not increase. Therefore, to make the farmers aware of the quality of soil in their fields and the components of available water, Department of AgPM organized a speech on the importance of soil and water testing for the villagers of Prof. P. D. Shiragave, delivered a speech on the importance of soil and water testing. 66 villagers and volunteers attended the speech.

Also, Department of AgPM organized a speech on the importance of soil and water testing for the villagers of Kasari. Miss. Gondhali, delivered a speech on the importance of soil and water testing. He also collected samples of soil from the farmers and gave them demonstration of the quality of the soil. 42 villagers and volunteers attended the speech.
